PROFILE

I'm an 18-year-old Computer Science student living in Warsaw, Poland, currently studying at the Polish-Japanese Academy of Information Technology. My fascination with computers began at an early age, and I'm now taking my first steps in the IT industry. I have a strong passion for programming, particularly in web development and deep learning. I invite you to explore my personal website, where I showcase my projects. I am eager to learn and contribute, and I look forward to the opportunity of working with you.
